General Comment

Dear Government Department - EBSA,

As a hard working American who tries to save money and make money please know that using any options to do so is important. Learning about investments by proper options trading grows retirement accounts. Some option trades reduce risk rather than increase it. Please do not limit their use to Americans. The more money Americans make the more the government get in taxes...it should be looked at as a win win situation.

Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully,

An American Citizen
